

Experience Our World!

Children and young adults can learn new art skills, as well as the cultural heritage behind the crafts. Free art classes are available in partnership with the St. Helens public Library, and taught by local artists.

Art Quilting

With members of the Columbia River Piecemakers Quilt Guild, children will learn stories behind quilts, as well as design and create a small quilt piece.

Saturday, January 14, 2012 10am to 12:30pm Age: 8 years and up

Leather Carving

Students will carve into a leather item with a tool to create a decorative pattern.

Saturday, February 11, 2012 10am to 12:30pm Age: Grade 6 and up

Eastern European Traditional Egg Painting

Students will learn the history and craft of painting eggs with a wax resist technique, in the style of the eastern European culture.

Sunday, March 18, 2012 1pm to 3:30pm Age: Grade 6 and up

Basket Weaving

Students will construct a basket from natural materials and learn the cultural history behind the basket.

Saturday, April 21, 2012 10am to 12:30pm Age: Grade 4 and up

Each class is offered separately, FREE of charge, and will be held in the Auditorium at the Columbia Learning Center, 375 South 18th Street, in St. Helens. Class size is limited to 10-15 students each, depending on the class, and pre-registration is required.

Pre-register now for the January & February classes at the St. Helens Public Library or call 503-397-4544.

Registration for the March & April classes will be open when final details of the classes are available.

(Please note: Parents or a guardian are to remain with children age 9 and under for the duration of the class.)

Sponsored by the Arts & Cultural Commission of the City of St. Helens through a grant from the Columbia County Cultural Coalition.

